

MILLER CREEK SCHOOL DISTRICT
APPLICATION FOR PARCEL TAX EXEMPTION

An exemption from the Miller Creek School District Parcel Tax levy will be made available to homeowners who are 65 years of age or older, homeowners receiving Supplemental Security Income, or homeowners receiving Social Security Disability Insurance whose yearly income does not exceed 250 percent of the 2017 federal poverty guidelines issued by the United States Department of Health and Human Services. Eligibility is defined as the owneroccupant who owns the parcel and uses that parcel as their principal place of residence.

The completed application from a qualified applicant will provide an exemption for the parcel tax for the remaining term of the levy so long as such applicant continues to occupy the parcel as their principal residence.

Applications must be received on or before July 1 of the tax year.
